

I'm Falling Behind and/or Failing! Now What?!

Inspirational Quotes:

- * "Failure is the opportunity to begin again, more intelligently." – Henry Ford
- * "What defines us is how well we rise after falling."- unknown
- * "F-A-I-L" (first attempt in learning)

Step One:

- *Log into your STUDENT ACCESS on the Conroe ISD Homepage.
- *View your current grades for all of your classes.
- *Print and highlight any zeros or failing test grades you may have received.

Step Two:

- *Show your teacher your grade print out, with any missing assignments and/or zeros.
- *ASK or email your teacher to see if you can turn in missing assignments for late credit.
- *ASK or email your teacher to arrange any possible retests.
- *ASK or email your teacher to see if there is extra credit available for you to do.

(Hope for the best, but realize your teachers may not allow you additional chances to make these assignments up.)

Step Three:

- *Complete all missing assignments ASAP, if your teacher allowed you to do so.
- *Review any tests you failed with your teacher to see what you got wrong and why.
- *Study and prepare for any tests that you have been allowed to retake.

Step Four:

- *Study for upcoming tests, because they count for a larger portion of your grade.
- *Complete all of your daily grades and do not occur any additional zeros.

Step Five:

- *Check your teachers' websites or canvas, and record due dates in your planner.
- *You may need to suspend any afterschool activities until you get caught up.
- *Attend tutorials IMMEDIATELY and take initiative to get back on track.
